Question 2. Read the passage below and answer the questions. (3 pts)

In the United States, people celebrate Mother’s Day and Father’s day. Mother’s day is celebrated on the second Sunday in May. On this occasion, mother usually receives greeting cards and gifts from her husband and children. The best gift of all for an American Mom is a day of leisure. The majority of American mothers have outside jobs as well as housework, so their working days are often very hard. The working mother enjoys the traditional Mother’s Day custom of breakfast (or brunch) cooked by her family and served to her on a tray in bed. Later in the day, it’s also traditional for the extended family group to get together for dinner, either in a restaurant or in one of their homes.

Flowers are an important part of Mother’s Day. Mothers are often given a corsage or a plant for the occasion, particularly if they are elderly.

Father’s Day is celebrated through out the United States and Canada on the third Sunday in June. The holiday customs are similar to Mother’s day. Dad also receives greeting cards and gifts from his family and enjoys a day of leisure.

- When do American people celebrate Mother’s day and Father’s Day?

Question 2. Read the passage and answer the questions. (3 points)

The first real bicycle was made in Scotland. It was built in 1839 by a man named Macmillan. His bicycle had two wheels like a modern bicycle. But it was much difficult to ride. It was heavier because it was made of wood and iron. It did not have rubber tires like a modern bicycle. Instead, it had wooden wheels. This made it very uncomfortable on bumpy roads. But Macmillan was lucky about one thing: he could not get a flat tire!

Bicycles are very popular today in many countries. Many people use bicycles for exercise. But exercise is only one of the reasons why bicycles are popular. Another reason is money. Bicycles are not expensive to buy. They do not need gas to make them go. They also are easy and cheap to fix. In cities, many people like bicycles better than cars. With a bicycle, they never have to wait in traffic. They also do not have to find a place to park. And finally, bicycles do not cause any pollution!

1. Where and when was the first real bicycle made?

Thai Binh, 24 December, 2003

Dear White,

I came across your name in the pen pal column of my favourite magazine. I decided to write to you and introduce myself.

My name is Tran Thi Thuy. I was born on 9 July, 1988 in Thai Binh Province. Now I live at 297 Quang Trung Street in Thai Binh. There are four people in my family: my father, my mother and my elder brother and I. My father is a teacher of Math and my mother is a teacher of English. They both teach at Le Loi Lower Secondary School. My brother is a student at Hanoi National University.

I study at Nguyen Hue School. It is a big school in the city. I am in grade 9A. We study many subjects such as English, Math, Geography, History ... but I like English because it is widely spoken all over the world. I like to read books and watch TV in my free time.

Perhaps you could write and tell me something about yourself. It would be wonderful to hear from you.

Best wishes,

Tran Thu Thuy

Nga: Do you find it difficult to remember English words?

Lan: Yes, I think so. I often try my best to learn English vocabulary. You know if you don't remember words you can not read or write well.

Nga: can you tell us how you learn to remember English words?

Lan: I keep a vocabulary notebook. Whenever I hear or read a new word, I write it down. Then I look it up in the dictionary for its meaning and how to use it.

Nga: Is it the only way you learn English words?

Lan: Sometimes I put words in groups, like fruit – all kinds of fruit, or colours, or clothes. I try to learn thirteen new words a day.

Nga: Oh, I see why you are very good at reading and writing in English.

Dear Lan,

Last Saturday I went on excursion to Oxford with my classmates. We got up early and took a bus, so we arrived there on time. In the morning we visited the National Gallery, Big Ben and the Hyde Park. They were very interesting. In the afternoon I bought a dictionary and a small disk with the words “Oxford University”. I met some English students in the bookshop. I was happy to practice speaking English with them. Although we felt a bit tired, we all had a nice trip.

Did you have a nice weekend? I miss you a lot.

Best wishes,

1. the second Sunday in May
2. send Mother's Day cards, give flowers or sweets to their mothers or do the cooking, housework for their mothers.
3. the 1860s
4. to make friends
5. 1908

Tapescript

The second Sunday in May is Mother's Day. It is a public holiday in both Britain and America. On that day children send Mother's Day cards to their mothers. They give their mothers flowers or sweets as presents.

Fathers and children do the cooking and housework so that mothers can have a rest.

In the USA, Mother's Day started in the 1860s. There was a small town called Pruntytown in the middle of the USA. People in the town fought against each other during a war. After the war they hated each other. Mrs. Ann Reeves Jarvis wanted the people to make friends with each other again. So she started "Mother's Friendship Day". On that day she visited all the other mothers in the town and said: "Let us be friends with each other again".

Her idea succeeded. The same thing happened in other parts of the country. After she died, her daughter carried on her idea. In 1908 Mother's Friendship Day became Mother's Day.

Galileo was one of the first modern scientists. He was born in Pi Sa, Italy, in 1564. He studied philosophy, mathematics and astronomy. He was very interested in the way the earth and other planets move around the sun. He was famous for his study of how things fall. Before, people used to think that heavy things always fell faster than light things. He did experiments about this problem and discovered that both heavy things and light things fell at the same speed. Many religious people did not agree with him because his scientific ideas were different from theirs. He even went to prison for a while; but no one could stop him from thinking. He continued to look for scientific answers.

Tapescript:

Computers are helpful in many ways. First, they are fast. They can work with information much more quickly than a person. Second, computers can work with lots of information at the same time. Third, they can keep information for a long time. They do not forget things as the way people do. Also, computers are almost always correct.

Computers are very useful, but they also can cause problems. One kind of problem is with the computer's memory. It is not perfect, so sometimes computers lose important information. Another problem is with the machinery. Computers are machines, and machines can break down. When computers break down, they may erase information, like chalk on a blackboard.

Question 2. Read and complete the table using the information from the passage. (2.5 pts)

When you are on holiday and intend to go to the seaside or travel abroad as a torist, you should first of all decide on the means of travelling. You can travel by train, by ship by car and of course by plane. Travelling by plane is more comfortable, more convenient and much quicker than any other vehicle. But not everybody likes it. Some people say they do not see very of the country they go to. Trains are good enough for them. They enjoy the exciterment of railway stations, the shows of porters pulling and pushing luggage along the platforms and the sight of train ready to start. But they all cand not stand the noise and the movement of the trains.

Some holiday makers are all for travelling by sea. Of course one can watch the sun rise and set, which is an unforgettable sight. For people who get seasick, a sea voyage is out of the question.

Mother's Day

The second Sunday in May is Mother's Day. It is a public holiday in both Britain and America. On that day children send Mother's Day cards to their mothers. They give their mothers flowers or sweets as presents. Fathers and children do the cooking so that mothers can have a rest.

In the USA, Mother's Day started in 1860s. There was a small town called Pruntytown in the middle of the USA. People in the town fought against each other during a war. After the war they hated each other. Mrs Ann Reeves Janis wanted the people to make friends with each other again. So she started "Mother's Friendship Day". On that day she visited all the other mothers in the town and said: "Let us be friends with each other again".

Question 2. Read the passage and do the tasks that follow.

All languages have rules for forming words and for ordering those words in meaningful sentences. In written language, meaning is expressed through a system of characters and rules for combining these characters. In spoken languages, meaning is expressed through a system of sounds and rules for combining those sounds. Word order is more important in English than it is in some languages such as Russian.

Like other languages, English is always changing but it changes very slowly. People invent new words, borrow words from other languages and change the meaning of words as needed. For example, the English word byte was invented by computer specialists in 1959. The word tomato was borrowed from Nahuatl, an American Indian language spoken in Mexico.

People learn English as well as languages by listening, copying what they hear and using the language. Most school children learn their first languages easily and sometimes other languages as well.

Question 2. Read the passage and check True or False. (2.5 pts)

Many years ago, people used to buy what they needed from stores and markets. Now where would you go if you wanted to buy all these goods at one time? Ask anybody, and he would probably say "you'd better go to the supermarket". A supermarket is a special kind of market. It is usually much larger than an ordinary store. In a supermarket, you can buy all kinds of food, household, products and daily necessities. In a store, a customer is served by a storekeeper but in a supermarket, the goods are arranged on rows of shelves along the aisles. The prices are printed on small labels on the goods. A customer gets goods he needs from the shelves. This is known as self-service. Of course, you can always ask for help from the supermarket shop assistants.

When you enter a supermarket, you take a basket to carry the goods you will buy. If you want to buy a lot of things, you will need a trolley. A trolley is like a large basket on wheels. You can push it along the aisles, choose what you want from the shelves and put it into your trolley. A supermarket often provides a more comfortable environment for shopping than a market that is usually wet and dirty. As a result, many people usually buy more goods than they need when they visit a supermarket.

Dear Anna,

I live in 12, Van Phuc Village, Bac Ninh Province. It is far from the town so life is very quiet and peaceful. Every day I get up early, at about 5.30. I clean my teeth, wash my face have a quick breakfast and walk to school. It take half an hour to get there. I usually have 5 lessons, in the morning so I often go home late, at 12.30.

I study hard at school because I do not have much time to study at home. I help my parents to work on their fram in the afternoon.

In summer vacation my parents usually let me visit my granddad who lives in Nha Trang. It is a great time for me because I spend all my time there to go swimming.

Although life in my countryside is still hard, I like it very much.

I hope to receive your letter soon.

With love,

Lam
